Palace Theater Presents Satisfaction: The International Rolling Stones Tribute Show

WATERBURY, CONN. – “You Can’t Always Get What You Want,” but Rock and Roll fans looking for the next best thing to seeing Mick Jagger and Keith Richards live in concert need look no further than the Waterbury Palace Theater’s upcoming presentation of Satisfaction: The International Rolling Stones Show, on Saturday, Mar. 6, at 8p.m.

Tickets for the international touring tribute show, which is sponsored by Ion Bank, are $35 and can be purchased by phone at 203-346-2000, online at www.palacetheaterct.org, or in person at the box office, 100 East Main Street in Waterbury.

Globally acclaimed by Rolling Stone Magazine, Showbiz Magazine, CBS News and hundreds of newspapers and television shows across the world as the most authentic international touring production honoring the Rolling Stones’ legacy, this Billboard and Pollstar highly rated production showcases the most realistic cast and costuming of its kind. The likes of Mick Jagger, Keith Richards and cast bring a flawless and colorful performance to 50 years of classic Stones’ hits including “Start Me Up,” “I Can’t Get No (Satisfaction),” “Paint it Black,” “Gimme Shelter,” and countless others.

In 2005, the production became the first ever Rolling Stones show to debut on the Las Vegas strip to outstanding reviews. In 2008, the show was chosen by Paramount Pictures and the IMAX Corporation to help promote the new Rolling Stones concert film “Shine a Light” by Martin Scorsese throughout the USA, and two years later, the show received its highest accolade when it was approved by the Rolling Stones to perform long term engagements with the Walt Disney Corporation. Their latest project “Gimme Abbey,” a multi-media Broadway style production, debuted in 2014 and features The Beatles and The Rolling Stones in concert together in 1969.
