

Palace Theater After-School Program
“Turn the Beat Around: Celebrating Culture and Identity through Music”

The six-week after-school workshop series, Turn the Beat Around: Celebrating Culture and Identity through Music is an interactive language arts, music and theater appreciation program facilitated by professional teaching artists and guest speakers.

Through creative expression, theater games, and critical analysis, students will explore the plot, characters, and music of the musicals On Your Feet! The Story of Emilio & Gloria Estefan and Hairspray, examining the role that music plays in creating community and personal identity.

Turn the Beat Around is a grant-funded program sponsored by the American Savings Foundation and supported by The Next Street. 30 spots are available for interested middle and high school students (Grades 6-12). Participation is free and includes a complimentary ticket to the December 16 matinee performance of On Your Feet! and the January 17 evening performance of Hairspray at the Palace Theater.

All workshops will take place from 3:00 – 5:00 p.m. except as noted. All sessions will be in person at the Palace Theater.

Students can expect to:

- Study the themes, music, and background of On Your Feet! and Hairspray
- Meet with guest speakers and artists from various fields
- Examine concepts of music, culture, and identity
- Work on homework and assignments and enjoy a provided snack each in-person session
- Create a final project, which they will present at the last class

By registering for this program, you are agreeing with and committing to the following Program Policies:

- Workshops begin promptly at 3:00 p.m. and end at 5:00 p.m. Students are welcome to arrive at the Palace Theater Box Office as early as 2:50 p.m.
- If you are running late and cannot arrive on time, come as soon as possible, and check in quietly.
- If you cannot attend one of the workshop dates, please contact Peggy Terhune via email (terhune@palacetheaterct.org) or phone (203.346.2014 – OK to text).
- Attendance will be taken during every workshop; late arrivals/early departures will be tracked. Students with less than 75% attendance may not be given the opportunity to attend the performances or other events.
- Please be respectful and attentive during all activities. Pay attention to guest speakers, teaching artists, and your fellow students. Please note that disrespectful or inappropriate behavior will not be tolerated.
- Students are advised to listen for any directions about upcoming classes, as well as projects and homework exercises that are required for the following workshop.
- At the end of each workshop, please return your folders and clean up your area (water bottles, trash, etc.).
- Students who attend the performances must stay for the entire duration of the performance, unless previously arranged with Ms. Terhune.
- Students who do not abide by the program policies, who are unwilling to participate in the workshop activities, or who are disrespectful to their peers or teaching artists may be removed from the program at the discretion of the teaching artists or the Palace Theater Staff.
