

Immigrant Stories: In Their Own Words

Prospect Information

Thank you for your interest in being a presenter in the Immigrant Stories: In Their Own Words Series.

To help people better understand one another and live peaceably side by side, this series uses the device of storytelling to share a presenter's personal journey from their homeland to the United States. It is our hope that people who attend these presentations will come away with a deeper understanding of and appreciation for people from cultures different than one's own.

Your story should be between 45–60 minutes in length, followed by Q&A with the audience.

Please complete and submit the following to: marcucci@palacetheaterct.org for consideration by our selection committee.
