Palace Theater Mission Statement

*To preserve and operate the historic Palace Theater
as a performing arts center and gathering place that provides a focal point of cultural activity and educational outreach for diverse audiences.*

20 YEARS OF PARTNERING WITH THE GREATER WATERBURY COMMUNITY

A few years ago, we celebrated the 100 Year Anniversary of the Palace Theater's 1922 founding, the birth of one of the region's most important cultural landmarks. This past year, we celebrated twenty years since the Palace's reopening in 2004, following an extensive restoration and renovation. This restoration would not have happened without the support of a dedicated group of individuals and companies, the local community, the City of Waterbury and State of Connecticut.

Indeed, partnerships have been vital over the past two decades, not only in restoring the theater to its past elegance and cultural significance, but also in assuring its continued success and growth as a performance venue, education hub, and community gathering space, as set forth in our mission.

Our partners help us grow institutionally, sponsoring shows or events, attending fundraising evenings, joining one of our Giving Societies, or contributing to our Annual Fund. Other partnerships support the theater through collaborations, services or time. And yet another dedicated group of partners are on hand to keep our events running smoothly — last season, our volunteers logged an impressive 10,085 hours over 2,604 shifts!

One of our closest neighbors, the Waterbury Arts Magnet School (WAMS), has been our partner school for two decades, sharing a building, technical support, and a close connection through the arts. The Palace was honored to be the first recipient of the WAMS Hall of Fame Community Partner Award this spring, and we look forward to a continued partnership with WAMS and the Waterbury Public Schools.

Tastes change, music evolves, and theater progresses — but the Palace remains the area's premier performance venue, thanks to you, our valued supporters and partners. Your generosity and patronage have positioned us to look forward to the next twenty years and beyond.

Sincerely,

CELEBRATING PROGRAMMING PARTNERSHIPS

Since reopening in 2004, we have welcomed over 2 million guests to our historic building. During the 2024–2025 season, we continued to fill our spaces with Broadway shows, concerts, and comedy performances, Spotlight Series and CommUNITY presentations, special events, tours, and other programs, filling 93% of our available prime dates.

We were proud to host the National Tour and CT premieres of two shows, Hadestown and The Addams Family, both of which used our theater for their pre-tour rehearsals. These shows were followed by The Cher Show, Come From Away, and Dear Evan Hansen — this spectacular Broadway series had something for everyone to enjoy.

Our longstanding partnership with the Waterbury Symphony Orchestra (WSO) continued this season, with a successful screening of Back To The Future accompanied by the WSO. In May, we presented Broadway Scores, a tribute to the shows, musical scores, and songs that have graced our stage for two decades (or one score!). Eight versatile Broadway artists joined the WSO on stage, to represent the range and breadth of the Palace's Broadway history.

Beyond Broadway, some of our season highlights included legendary Puerto Rican bandleader Gilberto Santa Rosa and virtuoso violinist Itzhak Perlman. Actors Steve Schirripa, Vincent Pastore, and Michael Imperioli joined us for In Conversation with The Sopranos, and The Rock Orchestra by Candlelight brought a new twist to rock classics.

Many of our smaller, curated speaker series were brought together under the new Spotlight Series umbrella this year, including 2ND ACT, I Wrote That Author Talks, Immigrant Stories, and the CommUNITY Spotlight Series. These events create community while shining a light on unique stories, people, and experiences.

WELCOMING YOUNG AUDIENCES!

Education has been one of the tenets of our mission since the Palace's reopening, and we love hosting students and school groups at our shows and events. This year saw an increase in interest and participation in our theater education programs, which include subsidized ticket programs, after-school activities, workshops, and more.

We are proud that our after-school theater arts education program began in the early 2000's and has continued to evolve and expand each year. Local middle and high school students enrolled in this year's program, Being Found: Searching for Connection and Community, studied and saw Come From Away and Dear Evan Hansen, participated in guest teacher workshops, presented their own projects, and enjoyed meeting cast members from both shows.

Many schools and community groups requested post-show talkbacks this season, which we held for The Addams Family, Come From Away, and Dear Evan Hansen. These inspiring sessions provide insight into the lives and careers of professional artists and theater technicians.

In addition to these programs and events, we were also delighted to host events with some of our other community partners, such as Seven Angels' HALO Awards (with over 100 schools in attendance over four nights) and UCONN's WISHfest. We were honored to hold the Black Men in White Coats event with Saint Mary's Hospital—Trinity Health Of New England, encouraging students of color to enter the field of medicine.

Each year, the Palace is honored to play an important role in the education journey of many Waterbury students, by hosting high school and college graduations. In the 2024–2025 season, we held ten graduations; we hope to welcome back these newly minted grads in the future — whether they are on stage or in the audience!

In memory of Patricia Emons

A former educator and school principal, Pat Emons passed on her passion for the arts to her students, including those at Children's Community School in Waterbury. She was an annual subscriber and a 20-year donor to the theater, and her legacy lives on through her generous gift to the Palace.
