PALACE
THEATER

Palace Theater Mission Statement

To preserve and operate the historic Palace Theater as a performing arts center and gathering place that provides a focal point of cultural activity and educational outreach for diverse audiences.

ROOTED IN HISTORY & CONNECTED WITH COMMUNITY

This past year, America celebrated the 250th anniversary of its founding. Across the country, communities reflected on the nation's story, looking at ways in which we define both our shared history and various cultural identities, often told creatively through storytelling and music.

The Palace Theater has stood in the heart of downtown Waterbury since 1922, an enduring symbol of American artistry, resilience, and community connection. For over a century, the Palace has gathered audiences to present storytellers in many forms — musicians and comedians, blockbuster shows and children's entertainment, local figures and media celebrities alike.

While we enjoy looking back at our own storied past, we also keep our eyes on the future. The Palace remains a vibrant hub for entertainment and arts education in the city, showcasing excellence in performance and a diversity of voices, whether from a national tour or a school production, while providing opportunities for new experiences for patrons of all ages.

What has set the Palace apart for so long is its role as a community gathering place for individuals, families, organizations, and schools. For students attending their first live show, long-time patrons meeting up with friends at intermission, or newlywed couples celebrating their first dance, the Palace is here to help them create their own stories and build their own community.

To further these connections, our Board of Directors approved a new Strategic Plan this past year, charting the course for the next five years in five major areas: Community Engagement, Fiscal Stability, Program Innovation, Visionary Growth, and the foundational Organizational Leadership. Board members and Staff are working together to investigate and implement new ideas and strategies that will continue to keep the Palace in the forefront of arts leadership in the region.

The Palace continues to be one of Waterbury's greatest treasures, creating a stage for America's cultural story, bringing people together and inspiring generations to come. On behalf of the Board of Directors and Staff, we thank you, our patrons and supporters, for helping us continue to connect and grow.

Sincerely,

Martin G. Morgado
Chair of the Board Directors

Frank Tavera
CEO

CONNECTING PAST & PRESENT

The arts shine a bright light on our cultural history, and many of this season's shows highlighted themes of individuality and connection, reinvention and resilience, all considered quintessentially "American" values.

From our Broadway lineup, TINA — The Tina Turner Musical showcased the story of an artist who overcame adversity to become a cultural icon, Blue Man Group celebrated the essence of artistic expression, while Meredith Willson's The Music Man brought us to 1912 small-town America for a story of personal growth and community transformation.

Artists and bands such as America, Ivy Queen, India, Diana Krall, and Satch/Vai Band brought people together to enjoy the power of music, while shows like S*esame Street Live* and Blippi welcomed our youngest patrons and their families to the joys of live theater.

Connecting with new audiences remains a key part of our mission, and presentations by Stardew Valley Orchestra, Rock Orchestra, and TV's Josh Gates helped welcome over 7,000 first-time patrons to the theater.

Our Spotlight Series (including 2ND Act, I Wrote That Author Talks, Immigrants Stories, Upstaged, and CommUNITY Spotlight) continued to weave together presentations and conversations between locally connected presenters and audiences.

Our 2025–2026 season was also notable for a surge in held events compared to initial bookings; by the close of the season, we saw increases both in booked Main Stage dates and Special Events. Community and Corporate event dates alone saw a 48% increase from pre-season expectations, keeping our Events Staff busy throughout the season.

CONNECTING PRESENT TO FUTURE

Introducing young — as well as new — audiences to the arts is the key to creating long-term growth across all artforms. Research from the National Endowment for the Arts indicates that attending live performances leads to greater long-term participation in arts and cultural activities, as well as community and civic engagement.

Each season, we bring hundreds of local students who would not otherwise have access to live entertainment to the Palace, through free or reduced-price ticket programs. This season we saw students from across the Greater Waterbury area enjoy performances such as Jurassic Park with the Waterbury Symphony Orchestra, Clue, Blue Man Group, and Meredith Willson's The Music Man.

This year's six-week after-school program, Instruments of Change: Building Creative Communities brought together 28 students from 7 local middle and high schools for a dive into the themes, characters, and music of Blue Man Group and The Music Man.

Sharing a building with the Waterbury Arts Magnet School (WAMS) allows both organizations to share resources. In addition to performing on our stage for many of their concerts and musicals, WAMS students also used our building for film and audio projects this year.

Returning partner programs included the City-Wide Talent Show (Waterbury Public Schools), Black Men in White Coats Youth Summit (Saint Mary's Hospital — Trinity Health of New England), the HALO Awards (Seven Angels), and UConn's WISHfest.

WORKPLACE GIVING

Matching Gifts: Many employers sponsor matching gift programs and will financially match eligible charitable contributions made by their employees, potentially doubling or tripling each gift.

Workplace Giving: Some companies allow for employee contributions to be made through payroll deductions.

The following businesses supported the Palace through these programs this year:

Ameriprise Financial
ASML Wilton
Bank of America
Ives Bank
Post University
The Hartford
Thermo Fischer Scientific
Thomson Reuters

1977–2026

A long-term member of IATSE Local 74, "Mighty" had worked backstage at the Palace Theater since its reopening in 2004. He was a beloved co-worker, described as "one of the best" for his work ethic, generosity, quick wit, and selflessness. He is greatly missed by all who had the privilege and pleasure of working with him, at the Palace and at venues across Connecticut.
