LETTER FROM THE CHAIRMAN

As the newly elected Chairman of the Board of Directors for the Palace Theater, I am grateful for the opportunity to continue serving this organization in this new capacity.

The Palace Theater has proven its resilience time and again, and the last few years have been no exception. A global pandemic leading to a shutdown and the halting of tours and performances could have been the proverbial last straw for an organization built to gather people together to enjoy performances – but the community, our patrons, and donors rallied and have continued to do so in the most generous and thoughtful ways.

Our reopening last year welcomed back old friends and introduced new ones, and we celebrated the theater's 100 Year Anniversary with joy and gratitude. We look forward to seeing what the next decades bring to the performing arts, and to the Palace.

It is now my pleasure to welcome you to the 2022–2023 Webster Bank Broadway Season! With a delightful roster of Broadway shows, we look forward to entertaining you throughout the year. And with a host of concerts, comedy shows, and other events on the calendar, we offer something for everyone!

On behalf of the Board of Directors and the staff, we thank you for supporting the Palace, attending productions, and providing financial support. Whether you are a first-time visitor or a long-time supporter, welcome to the Palace!

Sincerely,

LETTER FROM THE CEO

Happy New Year, and welcome to the Palace Theater! I am delighted that you are joining us for My Fair Lady, the second presentation of our 2022–2023 Webster Bank Broadway Series! This is an exciting season of award-winning favorites, with Tony, Grammy, and Oscar-earning artists, shows, and songs.

My Fair Lady has often been called “the perfect musical” since its opening in 1956, and this beautiful new production only serves to enhance this accolade. Set in 1912, this beloved show takes us from the streets of Covent Garden to the elegance of Ascot and the Embassy Ball as Eliza Doolittle seeks to improve her lot in life while staying true to herself.

The Palace Theater has had its own share of transformations and improvements over the years but has always held onto its role as a performing arts venue and community gathering place. This season, we have expanded our curated programs and off-stage events. In addition to our 2ND ACT Speaker Series, now in its fifth season, and our second Table Reading Series, this year we have added I Wrote That! Author Talks and new CommUNITY events. This summer, we hosted our first Coffeeshouse Open Mic, with another to follow this spring.

Our education outreach has expanded this season, too, with Youth Tours supplementing our monthly History Tours—and we will soon be adding Spanish-language Tours. Partnering with the Waterbury Public Schools, we created two new after-school programs focusing on careers in technical theater, and we continue to offer our “Learning in the Wings” internships for high school juniors and seniors.

Like Eliza Doolittle, we seek to improve ourselves and our offerings. As we plan new programming and initiatives, we are always mindful of you, our valued patrons, and we thank you for supporting the arts.

I hope you enjoy a “lovely” evening!

Sincerely,

Frank Tavera
CEO

ALAN JAY LERNER (Book and Lyrics) wrote some of America's best loved and enduring stage and movie musicals with Frederick Loewe over a period of more than 25 years: Life of the Party, What's Up, The Day Before Spring, Brigadoon, Paint Your Wagon, My Fair Lady, Camelot and Gigi. He also wrote Love Life with Kurt Weill, On a Clear Day You Can See Forever and Carmelina with Burton Lane, Coco with Andre Previn, 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue with Leonard Bernstein and Dance a Little Closer with Charles Strouse. He wrote the libretto and/or lyrics for the following films: An American in Paris, Gigi, The Little Prince, Royal Wedding and film versions of his plays. He wrote two books: The Street Where I Live and The Musical Theatre: A Celebration. During his life he received multiple Tonys, Oscars, Grammys and Golden Globes and a Kennedy Center Honor. Mr. Lerner died in 1986.

FREDERICK LOEWE (Music), a classically trained musician, wrote the scores for some of America's most memorable musicals including My Fair Lady, Camelot, Brigadoon, Paint Your Wagon and Gigi. Among his most famous songs with lyricist-partner Alan Jay Lerner are "Almost Like Being in Love," "I Could Have Danced All Night" and "Thank Heaven for Little Girls." A musical prodigy, Loewe was born in Berlin in 1901 and, at 13, was the youngest piano soloist to play with the Berlin Philharmonic. His popular song "Katrina," written when he was 15, sold more than a million copies across Europe. Struggling to find work on Broadway after arriving in the U.S. in 1924, Loewe worked at such odd jobs as cow punching, boxing and accompanying silent films on the piano. He wrote with several other lyricists until approaching Lerner at New York's Lambs Club in 1942 about collaborating on a show — thus beginning one of Broadway's most extraordinary partnerships. The recipient of multiple Tony and Academy awards, Loewe died in Palm Springs in 1988.

BARTLETT SHER (Direction) is a Resident Director at Lincoln Center Theater, where he won a Tony Award for his production of Rodgers & Hammerstein's South Pacific (which he also directed in London and Australia); and was nominated for Tony Awards for his LCT productions of My Fair Lady, Oslo (2017 Tony Award for Best Play, Obie Award, also National Theatre, London), Rodgers & Hammerstein's The King and I (also London), Golden Boy, Joe Turner's Come and Gone, Awake and Sing!, and The Light in the Piazza.
