PALACE THEATER UNMASKS 17 – 18 SEASON
PHANTOM OF THE OPERA ANCHORS BROADWAY SERIES

WATERBURY – The wait is over as the Palace Theater unmask its highly anticipated 17 – 18 Broadway series, and it is spectacular! A blockbuster, new titles and returning favorites, are all part of a line-up that is a dream musical theater season.

The series kicks-off with the hilarity of the 2014 Tony Award®-winning Best Musical, Gentlemen’s Guide to Love and Murder (October 20 & 21) followed by the two-week engagement of Andrew Lloyd Webbers’s masterwork, The Phantom of the Opera, Broadway’s hauntingly beautiful and longest running musical of all time November (15 – 26). The Jersey Boys are working their way back to Waterbury (March 23 and 24), Rent brings the season of love (April 13 & 14) and the inimitable sounds of the Motor City are unleashed when Motown the Musical rounds out the series (May 11 – 13).

Season subscriptions to the Palace’s 17 -18 Broadway Series are available by calling the Box Office at 203-346-2000. Season subscribers receive exclusive benefits and services not available to single ticket buyers, including reserved seating in preferred locations, up to twenty-percent ticket savings, free ticket exchange privileges, convenient payment plans, and exclusive presale opportunities to all Palace events.

For more information or to request subscription information in the mail, call the Box Office at 203-346-2000 or visit www.palacetheaterct.org.
